

AIMS U13 GIRLS FOOTBALL CUP FINAL @ SRI KDU SJ
3 NOVEMBER 2023

AIMS U13 GIRLS FOOTBALL CUP FINAL @ SRI KDU SJ
3 NOVEMBER 2023

MATCH REPORT

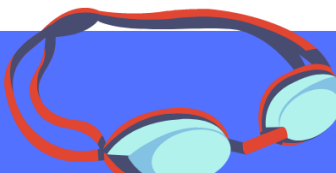

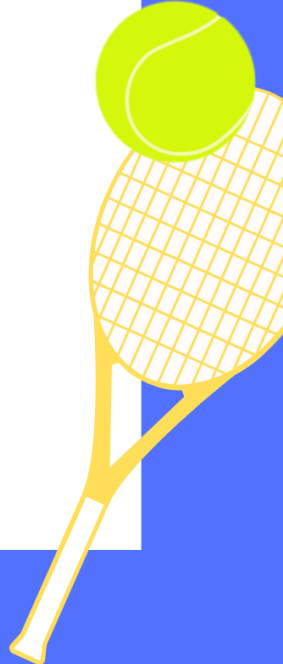

The AIMS U13 Girls Football Cup Final, held at Sri KDU Subang Jaya, delivered an electrifying display of young talent and sportsmanship. Despite weather-induced delays, all of the teams demonstrated unwavering determination.

Sri KDU Subang Jaya's incredible comeback against Kota Damansara was definitely one of the main highlights of the competition. Our team came back from a 2-0 deficit to win 3-2. The girls showcased their skill, resilience and great character throughout all of the games.

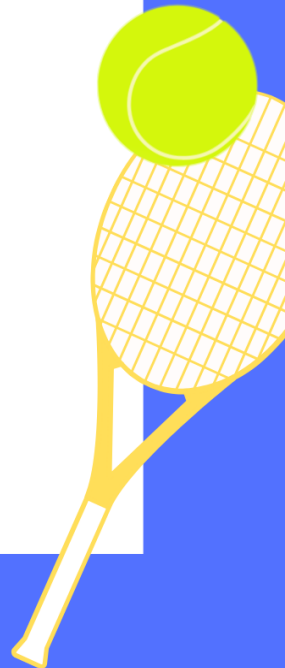

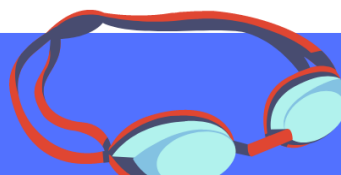

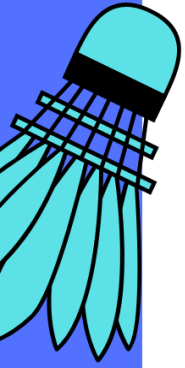

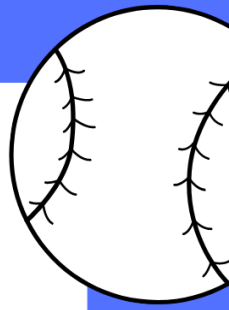

The competition concluded with Sri KDU Subang Jaya coming in second place, only being beaten by Sri KDU Kota Damansara on goal difference.

This event celebrated not only football prowess but also the true essence of teamwork and fair play, with gratitude extended to organizers, referees, coaches and all the young athletes involved.

-
- 1st - Sri KDU Kota Damansara
 - 2nd - Sri KDU Subang Jaya
 - 3rd - ELC
 - 4th - AISM
 - 5th - Tenby
-
-

AIMS O15 GIRLS VOLLEYBALL CUP FINAL @ ACE ARENA
8 NOVEMBER 2023

AIMS O15 GIRLS VOLLEYBALL CUP FINAL @ ACE ARENA
8 NOVEMBER 2023

MATCH REPORT

The AIMS O15 Girls Volleyball Cup Final began with high expectations, and it was clear from the first whistle that all the teams were evenly matched in skill and determination. The first set between Sri KDU Subang Jaya and Charterhouse saw incredible volleys and excellent defensive plays from both sides. Charterhouse managed to secure a slim lead early on but had to fight off a determined comeback from our squad. Ultimately, Charterhouse won the game.

As the match headed into the second match againsts Sunway, the momentum swung back and forth. Sunway displayed remarkable resilience, refusing to yield to our squad relentless attacks. The third set was a showcase of remarkable serves, quick sets, and powerful spikes from our squad but Sunway pulled off a thrilling victory in the third set

The players demonstrated their dedication and passion for the sport, and the spectators were treated to a memorable and fiercely contested match.

The last match against Mont Kiara sets was a fitting climax to this intense battle. Both teams displayed nerves of steel, refusing to give an inch. The teams traded points in a fierce battle of wills. In the end, our squad managed to secure a hard-fought victory in the final set thus clinching the match.

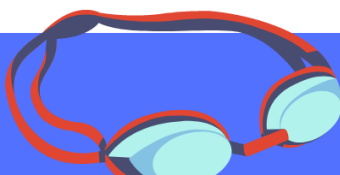

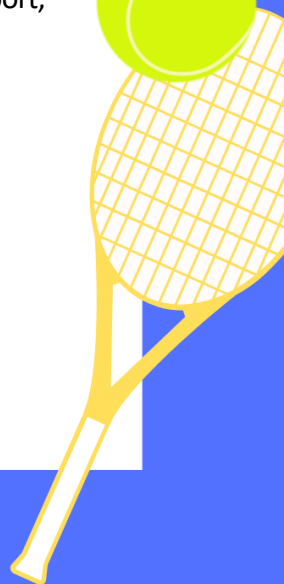

The players demonstrated their dedication and passion for the sport, and the spectators were treated to a memorable and fiercely contested match.

Final Results against:

Game 1 vs Charterhouse: Lost 2-0

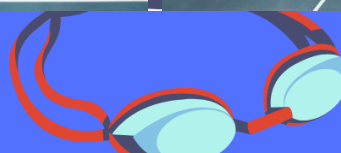

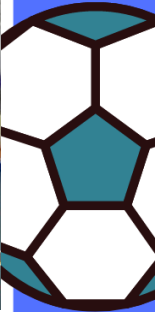

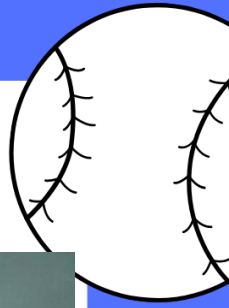

Game 2 vs Sunway: Lost 2-0

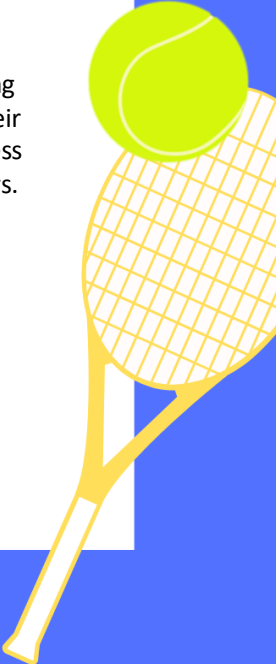

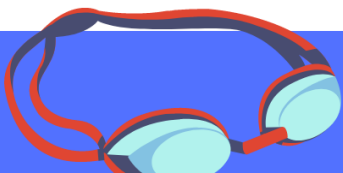

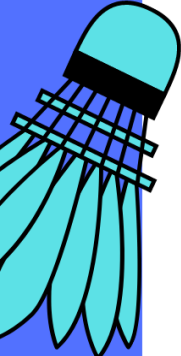

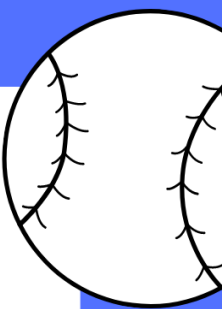

Game 3 vs MKIS: Won 2-0

AIMS O15 BOYS VOLLEYBALL CUP FINAL @ SUNWAY
8 NOVEMBER 2023

AIMS O15 BOYS VOLLEYBALL CUP FINAL @ SUNWAY

8 NOVEMBER 2023

MATCH REPORT

At the AIMS O15 Boys Volleyball Final at Sunway, the Sri KDU O15 Boys Volleyball Team demonstrated an exceptional display of strength and teamwork in a series of closely contested matches, showcasing their incredible skill, perseverance, and passion for the game. Engaging in three intense matches, each game was fiercely fought, highlighting the tenacity and talent of these young athletes.

Despite minimal rest periods between matches and a late finish, the boys exhibited endless determination and a positive attitude throughout. The players supported each other, showing respect not only for their teammates but also for the opposition. Their camaraderie and sportsmanship were evident on and off the court, reflecting their commitment to both the game and their peers.

Each set was neck and neck, displaying an exceptional level of volleyball skills, strategic play, and a drive to succeed. With every serve, block, and spike, the Sri KDU team showcased their dedication and passion for the sport.

Ultimately, after an intense series of games, the Sri KDU O15 Boys Volleyball Team secured a well-deserved 3rd place, earning themselves a bronze medal closely behind Sunway who finished first and Sri KDU KD who finished second. MKIS secured fourth place. This achievement stands as a testament to their hard work, discipline, and consistent perseverance.

Their success goes beyond the medal; it embodies the values of teamwork, resilience, and positivity that the team holds dear. The boys' ability to push themselves to the limits while maintaining respect for each other and their opponents is a true reflection of their character and the sportsmanship instilled within the Sri KDU sporting community.

Congratulations to the Sri KDU O15 Boys Volleyball Team for their outstanding performances, not only at the AIMS Cup Final but throughout the term at their fixtures. The boys' commitment to morning training and to their team's success has been evident and truly respected by coaches, teachers, parents and peers.

Final Results against:

Game 1 vs Sri KDU KD: Lost 2–3

Game 2 vs Sunway: Lost 1-2

Game 3 vs MKIS: Won 2-1